Ruth (Pt. 5)

Ruth 4:1-12

Sunday December 28, 2008

the crossings

A community of faith and friends in pursuit of Jesus.

God's faithfulness will always be greater than ours. (7-10) -

God-glorifying engagement, risk and reward... (1-2) -

How many times in life do you have to push past a major obstacle to experience incredible fruit?

There will always be obstacles! (3-4) -

There is no end to the journey on this side of Heaven. (11-12) -

Success is marked by faithfulness and perseverance. (5-6)

Reflection:

1. Can you remember seasons of your life where right choices were the easy choices? Can you remember times when the right choices brought the most difficulty?
2. How would you characterize your Christ following endurance? Are you an sprinter, marathoner, or ultra-marathoner?
3. How do you measure success in your life? Do you measure it by what you can accomplish?
4. Have you found your life-long stride of journeying with Him?
