Nehemiah 6:1-19

Sunday February 8, 2009

the crossings

A community of faith and friends in pursuit of Jesus.

www.thecrossings.cc

Every God thing has something that appears good competing with it.

Can you think of some examples in your life?

Often times it is not the perceived value of an isolated opportunity but is a question of mission, purpose, or priorities.

For example:

The Crossings exists above all else to glorify God through transforming lives into disciples of Jesus Christ.

1. Glorify God
2. Transforming lives

Do you know your mission in life?

Define your mission (if you don't the world will define it for you) -

Defend your mission:

- Against diversion
- Against deception
- Against doubt (from outside and inside)

Nehemiah is met with several opportunities which appeared good but would have completely ended the construction of the wall.

Nehemiah's faithfulness and obedience leads to success.

This is a story of God's strength in man's weakness. A wall that could not be rebuilt in over 140 years only took 52 days in God's hands.
