I am sure you have heard that hindsight is 20/20, right? If you would agree that there must be a supernatural God working to bring this world as His creation to an equilibrium, then how can you see his hand working through the history of your life? Can you connect the dots? What things did not make sense at the time but do today?

Do you believe that He is still working today in the same way?

Why change?

God desires for us to feel the joy present in a life which is used in for His glory and His story.

Chapter 11 -

- After making the covenant for change, the people take action.
- They find that position and proximity are integral parts of ministry.

So what?

God has been working for years to use you where you are today.

Why change?

God desires for us to feel the joy of being used by him in the culmination of years of His hand working through history.

Challenge:

1. Begin your day with prayer and expect God to respond.
2. Begin your prayer with God and expect confession to follow.
3. Begin your intercession with honesty, and intimacy will follow.

40 Day Challenge: Could you commit to doing this for 40 days?
