Are you motivated for spiritual change?

Do you find that you become more enticed by a possible result than you are committed to getting there?

Spiritually what are you hungry for? What does the gap look like that rests between where you are today and where you believe God is calling you to go?

What comes to mind when you hear the words spiritual awakening, spiritual renewal, revival, repentance, restoration, revitalization, and resurgence?

How is your spiritual life in need of the ideas that are communicated by those words? How about our local church? How about the American church?

The Story of Nehemiah (1-10):

- Vision (Ch. 1-2)
- Building (Ch. 3-7)
- Word & Worship (Ch. 8)
- Prayer (Ch. 9)
- Change & Awakening (Ch. 10)

This is our story as well, with every phase bleeding into the next... Why this message and why now?

God is calling us as individuals and as a church to a season of change - a season of renewal. Are you in or out? Are you willing to accept the need for change?

“If my people who are called by my name humble themselves, and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and heal their land”
- God (2 Chron. 7:14)

Challenge:

1. Begin your day with prayer and expect God to respond.
2. Begin your prayer with God and expect confession to follow.
3. Begin your intercession with honesty, and intimacy will follow.

40 Day Challenge: Could you commit to doing this for 40 days?
