Remember Barnabas?

Godly leaders are great followers.

The discipleship process in scripture begins with learning how to be a follower.

Has this become a sticking point that is keeping you from growing as a disciple and leader for the Kingdom of God?

SAT Words of Day:

Exegesis vs. Eisegesis

What did slavery look like in Paul's day?

God chooses to work through authority and structure in our lives:

1. He works through the authority of government.
2. He works through authority established by employment.
3. He works through the authority of the local church.
4. He works through the authority of the home.

Reflection:

What areas of authority in your life are most difficult?

How does the sin of pride keep you from being a God honoring follower?

What are some practical things you can do to become a better follower of the God-placed authorities in your life?

As a leader, how do these ideas apply to you?
