How has our culture become a self-centered culture?

In what ways do you see this self-centeredness manifest?

How does our culture view commitment? What are some examples you see?

What are the contrasts between what we see in our culture and what we see in the Bible?

CHURCH = a gathering of people who have committed their lives to Christ by His grace alone, through faith alone, and for His glory alone.

A church is equally described by what it is as it must be by how it functions.

A church is NOT another philanthropic organization.

A church functions by:

1. proclaiming the Bible.
2. creating and nurturing community.
3. protecting the gospel.
4. growing in depth and breadth.
5. glorifying God.

The 6th & 7th Functions Of A Church:

6. A church is congregational.

7. A church is made of covenant members.
